

contents

JULY/AUGUST 2018

FEATURES

26 QUIET ACHIEVER

Dan Traucki explores what most people have dismissed as the "engine room" of France's wine producing area, Languedoc-Roussillon, to discover that change is afoot in terms of quality in this burgeoning region.

30 SANGUINE ESTATE – SEDUCTIVE HEATHCOTE AT ITS BEST

Heathcote has many charms as Michael Hince declares, but perhaps one of its most precious gems is that of the lovely Sanguine Estate.

34 HIGH FLYER AIMING HIGHER

A follow up piece on the adventures of Eddie McDougall, Asia's 'Flying Winemaker'. Denis Gastin finds out what Eddie's been up to and it seems that he's been very busy indeed.

38 PATRITTI WINES— A PERFECT BLEND OF OLD & NEW

Nigel Hopkins discovers the unique qualities of a winery that is both embracing its heritage and forging into the future with Patritti Wines. From one of South Australia's first Italian immigrants, this wine business has flourished from generation to generation and is now discovering new alternative varieties.

Winestate Magazine

Issue Number 290
July/August 2018

Cover photograph

Igor Klimov

REGULARS

- 10 Briefs
- 17 NZ Briefs with Emma Jenkins MW
- 18 European Report with Sally Easton MW
- 20 Wine Tutor with Clive Hartley
- 22 Wine Travel with Elisabeth King
- 24 Wine History with Valmai Hankel
- 42 Grapevine
- 50 Wine Words
- 52 Wine Investment & Collecting
- 56 What's it Worth?
- 78 Subscription Form
- 146 Aftertaste

WINE TASTINGS

- 60 Clare Valley & Surrounding Regions
- 64 Cabernet Sauvignon & Bordeaux Blends
- 82 Adelaide Hills
- 90 Yarra Valley & Southern Victoria
- 96 River Regions
- 100 Sweet White & Fortified
- 106 South Island (Nelson & Canterbury)
- 108 Jane Skilton's Recent Releases

the wine & spirit insider

- 112 New Releases, Organic Wines and Best Value Buys under $20.

For a complete list of what we tasted for this issue please refer to www.winestate.com.au